

AI Disruption Quick Check

FREE | 1 PAGE

A 15-minute household check for job and income disruption: runway, bills, accounts, and people.

How to use: Set a 15-minute timer and silence news and social. Use real numbers, not hopeful ones. Anything you don't finish goes on your calendar this week. This is about calm next steps, not doom.

1. Runway math

Liquid cash (reachable in 48 hours)	$
Monthly income if disruption hits	$
Essential monthly spending*	$

Runway weeks = cash / (spending / 4)

*Housing, utilities, food, transport, insurance, minimum debt.

Under 4 weeks: focus on bills and cash only. 4 to 12: work the whole list. Over 12: still lock down accounts and skills.

2. Sort your bills

- ☐ Must pay: housing, heat and power, essential meds, transport to work
- ☐ Negotiate: phone, internet, medical bills, some cards (call before late)
- ☐ Pause or cut: streaming, unused gym, duplicate software
- ☐ I picked the top 3 "Negotiate" bills to call this week

"Our household income just changed. What hardship options, due date flexibility, or temporary payment plans do you have?"

3. Lock down your accounts

- ☐ Unique password on your main email (the key to every reset)
- ☐ 2FA on email, bank, payroll and benefits portals
- ☐ Backup codes printed and stored offline
- ☐ "HR verification" or "payment" texts treated as phishing until you have checked them on the official site

4. Deadlines and documents

- ☐ I know the benefits or unemployment steps where I live
- ☐ Health coverage decision window noted, if relevant
- ☐ Offer letter, final pay and severance docs saved offline
- ☐ Folder started: lease, insurance, IDs (private, not link shared)

5. Small home buffer

- ☐ Water: 1 gallon per person per day for 3 days
- ☐ 7 to 14 days of prescription meds (ask your pharmacist)
- ☐ 3 dinners I can make from what's already in the pantry
- ☐ Power bank charged, flashlight tested

Set a budget cap before buying anything. Don't buy "survival kits" or generators out of panic.

6. People and scam filter

- ☐ Named 3 people to call: a ride, a career reference, a friend to vent to
- ☐ Exchanged numbers with one neighbor
- ☐ Household rule: no money decisions based on social DMs
- ☐ Walk away from "guaranteed AI income" and pay upfront offers
